

Healing your Soul's Journey

This journey that you are on within your human vehicle of biology was always meant to be a joyful journey of discovery just so you could find yourself again. Most of humanity got lost in the duality of experiences on Earth throughout their many lifetimes, forgetting their Divine aspects of love and joy that they are always connected with. It is so exciting to see that the number of people who are beginning to tap into their Infinite Self is growing exponentially. There is no need to explain or justify your existence or to feel obligated to being anything other than just YOU and to express your uniqueness and allow others to do the same.

As you journey towards discovering lighter, higher vibrational energies you begin to see, feel and re-discover the Infinite aspects of yourself and of the earth and all her inhabitants. You begin to understand how each and every one of us is on our own journey of discovery irrespective of what they've chosen to experience. There is no such thing as good or bad, right or wrong – everything just IS and we are all connected as ONE in the Universe.

We've all had experiences in lifetimes which may have left ingrained fears and old out-dated beliefs remaining within our DNA and cellular bodies and now is the time to let go of those old patterns and fears. They hold you back on your journey back to re-discovering and re-connecting with your God/Goddess self and to find renewed joy that this Earthly existence has to offer you. We are blessed that in today's world that there are such a varied number of modalities and paths to support us on our journey of discovery and healing.

At times of negative events or traumas you may have chosen to avoid the full impact of pain experienced by fragmenting or splitting an aspect of yourself from your physical, emotional and mental awareness. Such splits can originate from present or past lifetimes. Soul Healing is a Flower Essence mix designed to assist with healing at Soul level and has the ability to assist in retrieving and healing split aspects of the Soul, thus reversing dysfunctional patterns and re-balancing your life on all levels.
